The Mysore Residency,
Bangalore, 27th April 1917.

My dear Sir A. Viswesvaraya,

As I am dealing personally with the questions involved, Mr. Cobb has asked me to reply to your demi-official letter No. 4867, dated the 20th April 1917, regarding the Defence of India -- Scheme. Under this Scheme, there are two Committees, viz., an Exemption Committee and a Selection Committee. The former as its name implies, exempts persons wholly or partially from Military Service. It will consist of 3 members, namely myself as President, Col. Barton as Military Member, and a 3rd member to be nominated by the President. This last member will vary from time to time according to the class of application before the Tribunal, i.e., a Planter will be appointed to hear cases in which Planters are concerned, etc. So in the case of applications for exemption from Europeans employed in the State, I propose to nominate as 3rd Member one of your own Officers and I shall be highly obliged if you will kindly suggest the name of a suitable man. His presence on the Committee will ensure that the wishes of the Durbar are fully considered. The Selection Committee is for the purpose of selecting men from those not exempted by the Exemption Committee, for service outside the State. This Committee will consist of myself, as President, Col. Barton as the military member, and 3 civilians. As one of the three latter, I suggest that the same Durbar servant should sit to represent the Durbar, the other two members being a planter and a merchant respectively. So you see here also the Durbar's views will be fully considered. I need hardly, I think, add that in addition to your own member's aid you can count upon me to give my careful and sympathetic consideration to any representation advanced by my colleague on the Durbar's behalf.

There is one point however that is most important, namely that the Exemption Committee can only consider applications which have have been made by the individuals concerned. So will you kindly inform those of your officers who propose to apply for exemption do so at once?

The Military Authorities will be much obliged if this matter could be treated as urgent.

Yours sincerely

Y. S. G. Iyengar

I would therefore like to have definite information whether I am to apply for exemption to the Tribunal which will sit in Bangalore, and to which I have been nominated as representative of the Mysore Government, or whether their applications should be made to the Kolar Tribunal of which I am the President, and which, I presume, would therefore look after the interests of the Kolar officers appearing before that Tribunal.

In your D.O. letter No.H.K. dated 27th April 1937, I note that I am to seek and obtain full instructions before committing myself to any views regarding the exemption of officers in the State service.
